The Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome to Holy Trinity

This leaflet includes an order of service for worship and other important information.

Assistance. If you need assistance in any way, an usher at the entrance can help you. Restrooms are located in the Mission House building basement, accessible through the Cloister Corridor or across the garden and into the westernmost building.

New to Holy Trinity? We would love to be able to greet you properly. Please fill out a visitor card, located in the pews, and place it in the offering plate or give it to one of the clergy or ushers.

Giving. As Christians, we believe that all we have, from our talents, to our energy, to our financial resources, is a gift from God. If you would like to know more about how to give of your talents and energy, please let a member of our clergy know and they will gladly connect you with the various ministries of the parish. You can make a financial gift through the offering plate, online at holytrinity-nyc.org or by texting COHT316 to 73256.

Our Mission. To show and share the love of God.

Our History. Since 1899 The Church of the Holy Trinity has opened its doors to those of the Anglican Faith, of other faiths, and of no faith. Through hospitality, service, and worship, we seek to “do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God.”

Celebrating St. James the Apostle

Join us Sunday, July 23 at 4:00 PM

Though St. James’s Day is officially on July 25, you’re invited to join us next Sunday in Draesel Hall for merienda, or afternoon snack or tea, celebrating the Apostle with Spanish food and drinks, pictures, and stories from my recent walk on the Way of St. James, or Camino de Santiago.

Tradition says that after Jesus’s death and resurrection, James preached the Gospel in Hispania (the Iberian Peninsula which became Spain). When he returned to Palestine in 44 AD, he was killed by King Herod Agrippa. His disciples then claimed his body and sent it back to Iberia for burial. There are several different accounts of what happened next, but the remains seem to have reached Iberia and were hidden for safety.

In the 9th century, a hermit named Pelayo was praying and saw a bright light shining down from the sky. Intrigued by the light, he followed its path until he arrived at a field, where he (re)discovered the remains of St. James.

Today, the relics of St. James are in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela. Santiago comes from the Latin name Jacobus which translates to “James” in English. De Compostela comes from the Latin term Campus Stellae, meaning “Field of Stars,” referring to the vision of Palayo. From the 9th century, and for many different reasons, pilgrims have made their Way of St. James. Come and hear more on Sunday, July 23.

The Reverend John F. Beddingfield, Rector

THE WORD OF GOD

Prelude

See I am Near

Welcome

Opening Song

Tend

All who are able, are invited to stand

Verse 1 In the landscape of my life / you don't rush through any season
 You always take your time / a careful hand a gentle guide
 You take what's dead away / and you prune what's running wild

Chorus Be the gardener of my heart / tend the soil of my soul
 Break up the fallow ground / cut back the overgrown
 I won't shy away / I will let the branches fall
 So what you want can stay / and what you love can grow

Verse 2 Through the winter I'm still alive / what you've planted in the dirt
 Is ever reaching to the light / you prepare me for darkened times
 You'll sustain what you have started / and you'll teach me to abide

Opening Acclamation

All who are able, are invited to stand

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen

The First Lesson from Scripture

Isaiah 55:10-13

Lector A reading from the Book of Isaiah

As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it. For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the Lord for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Lector The Word of the Lord

People Thanks be to God

Gradual

See I am Near

See I am near says the Lord / See I make all things new (x3)

The Gospel

Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23

Minister The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

People Glory to you, Lord Christ

Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: “Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen!”

“Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.”

A Brief but Complicated History of The Church of the Holy Trinity

The original Church of the Holy Trinity, founded by the Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr. in 1864, stood at 42nd Street and Madison Avenue. He was followed by the Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Watkins, and the Rev. Dr. E. Walpole Warren. In the early 1890s, as Holy Trinity sought to move northward, the possibility developed for Holy Trinity to combine with St. James Church. Serena Rhinelander, who wanted to build a church as a memorial to her father and grandfather, bought out her relatives to amass a parcel of land on East 88th Street, and plans began to take shape for a new mission church. In 1897, St. Christopher's Mission House, the first building of the Holy Trinity complex, was dedicated. The old Holy Trinity building in midtown sold for $750,000, which allowed $200,000 to create an endowment for the new Holy Trinity, and the remainder of the money to go to St. James, who could then retire the mortgage on its new church building. When the rector of St. James retired, the former rector of Holy Trinity became rector of St. James, and the Rev. Dr. James B. Chalmers, became the first vicar of Holy Trinity's new incarnation. After Dr. Chalmers, Holy Trinity was led by vicars, the Rev. Samuel Dorrance, 1919-1926; the Rev. Dudley St. Stark, 1926-1932; the Rev. William J. Dietrich, 1932-1940; and the Rev. James A. Paul who began as vicar but was made the first rector with Holy Trinity's independence in 1951.

HOW TO JOIN US MORE FULLY

“I’m already an Episcopalian.”

Simply contact our parish office, give Erlinda Brent, the parish secretary, (ebrent@holytrinity-nyc.org) the name of your previous church, and we will do the rest.

“I was baptized, but not in an Episcopal Church.”

Simply obtain a letter from a former church or photocopy of your baptismal certificate. You can also be received or confirmed when the bishop visits Holy Trinity. Contact the rector or church office.

“I’m Roman Catholic.”

First of all, know that you are already welcome to receive Holy Communion. If you would like to unite formally with the parish, simply provide evidence of Christian baptism. Roman Catholics are “received” into our parish. You remain “fully catholic,” but are adopted into the Anglican Communion.

“I’ve never been baptized.”

Then get ready for a life-changing celebration! You will be led through a process that allows you to ask your deepest questions, to search with others for answers and to be baptized at any of our services.
